CITRUS SCULPTURES

Sunday 11 - Saturday 24 October 2026
Banna Avenue

Welcome to one of Australia’s most unique community events and the only place in the country where you’ll see these incredible citrus creations. This year marks the 29th anniversary of Griffith’s iconic Citrus Sculptures.

For two weeks, more than 60 spectacular Citrus Sculptures will line Banna Avenue, transforming the heart of Griffith into a vibrant outdoor gallery. Created using over 100,000 locally grown oranges and grapefruit, this remarkable exhibition is a celebration of imagination, craftsmanship and local pride.

As you wander through the displays, you might spot a talking robot, a reclining chook, a horse and cart, or even a grand piano. Each sculpture tells its own story and showcases the talent, creativity and dedication of the local schools, businesses, organisations and community groups that bring them to life.

CITRUS SCULPTURE TALKS

Daily at 11am | Meet at the Griffith Tourism Hub

Want to discover how these incredible sculptures are created? Join our Tourism Team each day at 11am for a short guided walk and talk through Griffith’s iconic Citrus Sculptures. Jenny & Richard Fletcher
39 CROOK ROAD, GRIFFITH

Jenny and Richard Fletcher established Jen’s Garden in 1987 on one acre around their ‘shed house’. Removing the old horse paddock fence in 2010 and digging a pond enabled the garden to be expanded. Garden beds were added and planting began in winter 2011.

Today, it is a three-acre farm garden with expansive lawns and a mix of native and exotic trees, shrubs and flowers.

Providing: Morning/Afternoon Tea & Lunch

Garden Highlights: Live music, local entertainment, face painting, stalls, food and so much more! Fun for the whole family.
